Texas is firecracker-hot, so thoughts of heading back to school may be the furthest thing from your swimming-pool mind-set right now.

Don't worry. Sit back and relax. We have shopped for back-to-school looks that your scholar will want to sport when that school bell rings.

For the elementary school fashionista, girls love patterned dresses combined with pretty sandals, suede booties or colored tennis or athletic shoes. Cute comfort T-shirts are also a favorite when teamed with brightly colored shorts or skirts. The younger guys love to sport polo shirts, plaid shirts, boat shoes or high-top canvas tennies. Athletic tees with matching shorts or cotton pants round out the looks. Don't forget a fun water bottle with a monogram or action figure theme. You can't go wrong with a Spider-Man backpack or lunch bag.

The middle school set loves fashion, too. Girls love the comfort of leggings with a cute T-shirt to team up with Adidas Superstars or white Converse. Print dresses are another school hit, along with flannel shirts to pull over fun patch jeans when the Texas sun begins to retreat. Add a canvas-edged backpack, sequin-style backpack or crossbody purse to ensure some playful fun for the school days ahead. Guys like athletic fabric T-shirts teamed with khaki or navy shorts to face fall looking cool.

Girls head to high school in trendy patterned shirts in prints like cactus, pineapple or flamingo paired with white pants or jeans. Trendy flowing tops and striped T-shirt dresses, accessorized with small necklaces and shopping tote-shaped lunch boxes, set the stage for the best school vibe.

Skinny jeans with interest, like torn at the bottom, are the rage too. Camo accents are still popular in T-shirts and accessories.

Cuff skinny jeans and add a solid colored T-shirt or a casual button-down shirt to make sure your guy is looking his best in the school hallways this fall. When the weather cools, top those jeans with a denim jacket or bomber jacket.

Sporting the latest kicks is still pretty cool for all ages heading back to school. Stylish sneakers are showing up on both girls and boys, combining comfort and fashion.
